

Transportation and Logistics Staff

Schedule: 10+ hours per week, seasonal, flexible and varied
Wages: $25 - $30 / hour based on experience
Start Date: Negotiable

Description

Energy Resources specializes in local event and experiential marketing. We engage targeted audiences to build brand for our clients.

We manage and execute hundreds of local activations annually. Our logistics team is responsible to warehouse, manage, deliver, set up and strike client assets of all shapes and sizes.

You will have the opportunity to manage the overall presentation for our activations. If you have top-notch building, fixing, problem-solving, organization and logistics skills, we want to hear from you!

Responsibilities

- Professionally represent our company and our client at community or business events
- Pre-event: Pack, load and transport event assets
- Post-event: Strike, load and return event assets
- Drive company and commercial vehicles to haul and deliver event assets including trailers up to 6,000 lbs,
- Experience and ability to drive box and lift-gate trucks up to 24'
- Deliver, locate and set up client assets on site to ensure the event environment, displays, and materials are on-brand
- Aptitude and skills to assemble, maintain and / or repair complex event elements
- Demonstrate superior customer service skills
- Attend training, as necessary

Qualifications

- Outstanding work ethic
- Team player
- Energetic, self-starter and goal-oriented
- Transportation or logistics experience including event activation set-up, stage-building, catering, or delivery experience preferred
- Proven ability to safely pull and maneuver to a a 20' trailer, up to 6,000lbs
- Strong problem solving and critical thinking skills
- Able to lift up to 50 lbs
- Clean driving record
- Valid driver's license

Interested applicants please email cover letter and resume.

ENERGYRESOURCES